Slavin: Appears from the shadows. Everything about him is tattered and torn. But he has a bit of fight in him.

With his crude staff, he presses hard against the neck of one of the shambling corpses...

"UGGGHHHH !" With a shove, he manages to force the monster backward, where it slams into a nearby dumpster. As the struggle continues, he manages to lift the lid.

As a struggle ensues, the corpse shrieks and bites.

The stranger brings the steel top of the dumpster down violently... "YOU... GOD... d*mn... b*st*rd!... "

The corpse collapses as it's head sloshes into a bloody pulp.

Slavin, now covered with blood and tissue, leaps upon the dumpster. He begins to beat the dumpster hard with his makeshift staff, making much noise and noticeably drawing the attention of the corpses nearby...

He shouts, "Missy. You don't need to be here! Take yer leave while ye can! Live to fight another day!" He continues to fend off the corpses drawn to the sounds.

"Please! Just GO! Another day perhaps. We shall meet again! NOW GO!"

Piper Greene: Piper looks up at the stranger with wide eyes before jumping to her feet and quickly running away before stopping and turning to him. "Please, come with me!" She begs her savior. "We need to get out of here!"

Slavin: Slavin quickly hides his disfigured appearance and speaks with muffled words from beneath his tattered cloak...

"But alas I cannot missy, for I was to meet the warrior PJay and sadly, his word is not what it seemed. Thus, I shall remain, alone..."
